The defendant bears the burden of proving that there is a reasonable probability of a different outcome. Id. We find that Robinson has met that burden. The record establishes that a credibility issue exists as to the counsel's promise of leniency to the only witness willing to testify on the defendant's behalf. Sanchez, and that such testimony was highly relevant to Robinson's defense of mistake of fact. Given the fact that the jury heard Sanchez's testimony without the benefit of such promised promises, we conclude that there is a reasonable 4bc0debe42
